

Artist Biography

Terence J. Hannum is a Chicago-based artist and musician. Hannum's writing has appeared in Regulator, F Newsmagazine, as well as Bridge Online. His art has been exhibited in group exhibitions at Thomas McCormick Gallery, Chicago; Winslow Garage Gallery, Los Angeles; and was curated by Francesco Bonami in the exhibition Silence. Listen to the Show at Fondazione Sandretto Re Rebaudengo in Torino, Italy. His films have been screened at Borealis Festival in Bergen, Norway and at Cinematheque, San Francisco. Hannum has also had solo exhibitions at Light & Sie, Dallas, Texas; Invisible NYC; and was featured in the 12 x 12: New Artists/New Work shows at the Museum of Contemporary Art, Chicago. He performs music with the gothic folk quartet Unlucky Atlas and the experimental duo Locrain. Terence J. Hannum received an MFA in painting from School of the Art Institute of Chicago in 2004.