

The Free Store

Melinda Fries, Salem Collo-Julin, and Biggest Fags Ever (Zena Sakowski & Rob Kelly)

January 26 – March 6, 2010

Opening Reception: Wednesday, January 27, 5-8 pm

The Free Store is a nomadic, temporary free store that irregularly visits a variety of Chicagoland neighborhoods. The Free Store, open during all gallery hours, invites you to be involved: come to the store, bring stuff you want to give away, and take stuff that you want. There is no restriction on what you can take—you don't have to trade or barter. Just take it.

To be successful, WE NEED YOUR ITEMS OR SERVICES.

Items can be dropped off at Gallery 400 during open hours. The Free Store organizers are always happy to accept donations (everything except for people, animals, and illegal/toxic substances).

Contact The Free Store directly: free@freestorechicago.org or 773-562-1428

The Free Store will be open for business during all gallery hours and during all related events.

GALLERY 400

Events

Saturday, February 6, 2-5 pm: Workers from The Greenhouses of Hope at the Pacific Garden Mission discuss “closing the loop”

Saturday, March 6. 12-8 pm: Last Day Blowout at The Free Store with plenty of surprises