Forms & Features at Gallery 400: Poetry and the... | Poetry Foundation

2 minutes

Join us for a poetry discussion and creative writing workshop in conversation with the artworks in "All have the same breath," on view at Gallery 400, and led by Maggie Queeney, Poetry Foundation Library Coordinator.

After engaging with the exhibition, we will read and discuss poems that explore the artworks' prevalent themes. Together, we will compose a collaborative poem that uses breath, repetition, and visualization to describe our individual and collective experiences and relationship to the earth.

The workshop is free and open to all but space is limited. Reserve your space here.

"All have the same breath" is on view at Gallery 400 from January 18-March 9, 2019.

Gallery 400 welcomes all visitors and strives to make every effort to accommodate guests with various needs. The gallery has a wheelchair-accessible entrance and elevators. Gender neutral and wheelchair accessible restrooms are located on the same floor as Gallery 400.

Personal assistance is provided in the exhibition space by attendants at the front desk. Additionally, gallery attendants are more than happy to provide audio description for any visitor who is visually impaired.

To inquire about further accessibility accommodations or for more information, please contact Sheridan Tucker Anderson at 312.996.6114 or gallery400@uic.edu.
