We invite you to attend the opening reception of Selected Works from the Refco Collection, the first in a series dedicated to corporate and private collecting. Refco, a futures trading firm, began acquiring art work in 1969. Twenty-eight years and three hundred twenty-five pieces later, Refco has established an international reputation for their collection and educational programs.

This exhibition was made possible by the School of Art and Design, the College of Architecture and the Arts and supported in part by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency. Our immeasurable gratitude and appreciation go to Frances R. Dittmer and Thomas Dittmer whose commitment to contemporary art and the development of an exceptional corporate collection have made this exhibition possible. And to Adam Brooks for his support and assistance with the development and preparation of this exhibition.
